

Battery Light Technologies. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL

1.

Orders placed shall not be binding until received and approved at the seller's home office. All orders, when approved, shall be deemed subject to all of the following terms and conditions unless modified, in writing, and signed by seller and buyer.

PRICING

1.

Prices quoted are subject to change at any time. Lead times and requested delivery dates are approximate. A scheduled date will be determined at the time of order acknowledgment.

1.

Pricing is based on the price agreed upon. All orders must be released in their entirety. In the event that a order is canceled, there will be a minimum 10% cancellation fee.

1.

All batteries are sold F.O.B. point of shipment.

DELIVERY

1.

Delivery of goods to common carrier or licensed trucker shall constitute delivery to buyer, and all risks of loss or changes in transit shall be borne by the buyer.

1.

The seller shall not be liable for failure to deliver or delays in delivery caused by strikes, lockout, fire, inability to obtain materials, shipping space, breakdowns, delays or carriers or suppliers, governmental action regulations, and other causes beyond seller's control.

1.

Seller reserves the right to make delivery in installments, unless otherwise specifically stipulated. All such installments shall be separately invoiced and paid for when due without regard to subsequent deliveries. Delay in delivery at any installment shall not relieve the buyer of its obligation to accept remaining deliveries.

CANCELLATION

1.

The purchaser may cancel his order upon written notice and upon payment to the Company of cancellation charges (10% minimum), which shall take into account among other things, expenses incurred and commitments already made by the Company for component parts specific to the buyer. The buyer is responsible for any parts purchased by Battery Light Technologies to prepare the original order. Battery Light Technologies will make reasonable efforts to cancel parts or use them for other projects to reduce the buyer liability

WARRANTY AND LIABILITIES:

The warranty period is 20 days after the ship date. The warranty is void if the storage conditions and temperature are not adhered to as specified. The warranty is void if the product is subjected to abuse, physically damaged. The warranty applies to all products added services provided by Battery Light Technologies.

There is no other express warranty or implied warranty including those of merchantability and fitness. Products used for a particular purpose are limited to the express warranty period. Liability for consequential or incidental damages under any and all warranties are excluded.

1.

It is at the sole discretion of Battery Light Technologies as to whether the product will be repaired or replaced.

1.

Seller reserves the right at any time to revoke any credit extended to buyer because of buyer's failure to pay for any goods when due or for any reason deemed good and sufficient by seller and in such event, all subsequent shipments shall be paid for upon delivery.

RETURN MATERIAL AUTHORIZATION

Authorization for the return of material claimed to be defective must be obtained prior to shipment, and all transportation charges must be prepaid by seller. A Return Material Authorization (RMA) number will be assigned and must appear on all packages returned to Battery Light Technologies and referred to in all correspondence. Returned material will be subject to inspection and test, and final determination as to whether or not any adjustment is due. The amount of credit, in the event that Battery Light Technologies agrees the product to be defective, will be calculated based on the latest or last invoiced price.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

1.

Battery Light Technologies will accept credit card or other online payments as they are provided.
